1A. VERSÃO

As partes que contem erros estão destacadas em amarelo.

When I was younger, I travel with my parents to Aracaju to visit my uncle who lives there. He was already awaitihg us. After we arived at his home, we hugged each other and we went Øset up our stuff there. This trip was amazing, I particularly liked Ø a lot. We 've been to a lot of places.

Aracaju is amaizing, we've been visiting the mall, the beaches, downtown, restaurants, and many other nice places there. I had a lot of fun there and I was very happy with all of that happening in my life. We spent hole morning Ø at the beach and in the evening we went to the shopping mall doing some shopping, watching movies alsolenjoying the great food of the restaurants there.

We also visited locations abroad the main city like villages and small communities. It's beautiful there. For me the best part was when I 've been to the top of the biggest building of the city, it was a gorgeous experience we saw all the city and the sea image was breathless.

This trip was very fascinating in my life. I won't forget never. It's changed my life. It was a great experience. I truly hope that some day I could come back there. I love Aracaju. Well, I think this is everything folks!

This trip was very fascinating in my life. I'll never forget it. It's changed my life. It was a great experience. I truly hope that some day I may come back there. I love Aracaju as well. Finally, this is everything folks!

ANEXO 2 – QUESTIONÁRIO DE SONDAGEM

Cara/o Aluna/o,

Este questionário de sondagem é parte integrante de uma pesquisa que o Núcleo de Pesquisas em Linguística Aplicada (LiA), vinculado ao Departamento de Línguas e Literaturas da URCA, está desenvolvendo acerca das crenças que os alunos possuem a respeito dos erros e da aprendizagem de inglês-LE. Agradeço sua colaboração e, ao mesmo tempo, assumo o compromisso de manter seus dados em completo sigilo.

Cordialmente,

Cristiane Rodrigues Vieira
Coordenadora doLiA- DLL/URCA
